

Giulia Arenaccio

Counsel

Rome

Biography

Giulia Arenaccio's practice focuses on securitisation deals and structured finance transactions.

Giulia is a counsel in the Debt Capital Markets Department of the Rome office of Hogan Lovells and over the past ten years has assisted a number of major financial institutions, investment firms and companies (as arrangers, originators and representative of the noteholders) on a range of structured finance transactions such as securitisations of various type of assets, principal finance transactions and covered bonds programmes. In particular, she has established a recognised position in the personal loans securitisations market, specifically salary secured loans and auto-loans.

Giulia joined Hogan Lovells in February 2016 and prior to that she has been working for about 10 years in the financial markets departments of two major leading international firms. Giulia is qualified in Italy and admitted to the Rome Bar.

Giulia regularly contributes as speaker at forum and seminars on securitisations and capital market topics organised by reputable institutions, such as the Italian Banking Association.
