Biography

Julien Martinet leads the Paris Banking and Finance Litigation practice. He is a member of the bars of Paris and Djibouti, and of the Association Européenne de Droit Bancaire et Financier (European Society for Banking and Financial Law).

He lectures in banking litigation for the postgraduate degree (master 2) in Banking and Financial Law at the Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne University. He defends credit institutions in civil and commercial judicial disputes involving their different activities (credit, financial markets operations, payments, patrimonial advice, enforcement measures, contract/network, procedures of processing household debt problems, insolvency proceedings, and criminal proceedings).

Julien is assisted by five associates and has the regular support of his partners in their respective fields of competence.
