

Laura Hunter

Associate

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Laura Hunter utilizes her familiarity with challenges in the health care industry to advise clients on navigating the complex regulatory requirements of federal health care programs.

She helps companies with obtaining coverage and reimbursement for their products and services, developing prudent compliance systems, and defending against wide-ranging government investigations. Laura is an authority on topics such as the meaningful use program, HIPAA and state health care privacy laws, state pharmaceutical transparency and marketing laws, and Medicare value-based payment programs. Her knowledge of these topics allows her to create pragmatic solutions to build compliance programs from the ground up, conduct internal audits to strengthen compliance frameworks, and develop sophisticated responses to government enforcement actions.

Her clients span the health care industry, including drug and device manufacturers, managed care plans, health information technology companies, and other health care providers.

Laura received her J.D. from the New York University School of Law, where she served as an Executive Editor on the Journal of Legislation and Public Policy. As a
