

Katharina Kranzfelder

Senior Associate

Munich

Biography

Katharina Kranzfelder advises domestic and international clients on complex finance transactions. She helps financial institutions, corporations or investors on financing transactions, in particular on real estate finance, corporate loans, asset finance, or loan portfolio transactions. She has extensive experience on dealing with high-value financing transactions and stays cool also in challenging situations.

In addition, Katharina focuses on complex financial restructuring and insolvency scenarios. She frequently advises on debt restructuring, acquisition of distressed or insolvent companies, enforcement of claims and any other kind of insolvency matters.

Katharina gained international experience while working in our London office.
