

Financial Services Litigation

Financial services is not a sideline for our lawyers. We have practitioners in every major financial center in the world, working as one coordinated team.

There is no learning curve when our clients hire us. We understand the industry, the products (including investment banking, asset management, trade finance, and retail) and the law. We get it — and we will have seen the problem, or something like it, before.

We don't see problems in isolation. We recognize that superficially simple issues can have very wide ramifications — and that disputes that seem to be worth pennies can sometimes be worth billions.

We find solutions that preserve our clients' immediate interests along with their relationships with customers, other industry participants, and regulators.

Representative experience

Representing a syndicate of 13 banks defending proceedings brought by the borrower in relation to a £650m facility.

Defending a European bank in the New York courts against a class action alleging that London Gold Fixing members conspired to violate antitrust laws.

Representing a major global bank and a New York-based hedge fund in disputed claims against the estates of various Lehman entities.

Defending the wealth advisory business of a major bank in

Contacts

Marc Gottridge,
New York

Practices

Crisis Leadership Team
Litigation

Industries

Financial Institutions

claims by high net worth individuals attacking the bank's investment strategy.

Latest thinking and events

Hogan Lovells Events

FIS Summit Series: Europe

Hogan Lovells Events

Global FIS Summit Series: United States

Press Releases

Financial services industry challenges ahead: Impacts of CFPB, cryptocurrency, sanctions, and litigation

Press Releases

Hogan Lovells builds Paris practice with Financial Litigation partner hire

Events

New corporate criminal offences - Are you prepared?

Hogan Lovells Publications

The law of personal jurisdiction: A game changer for foreign banks involved in litigation in the U.S.