

Luis Giovanni Sosa

Associate

Mexico City

Biography

As a tax and administrative lawyer, Luis Giovanni Sosa translates complex business challenges into effective and practical solutions. He advises clients on taxes and administrative litigation.

In addition, Luis Giovanni has been involved in several litigation cases regarding the constitutionality of legal amendments to tax and administrative laws.

Luis Giovanni enjoys the challenges of multinational transactions and effectively gives proper advice through his insight into the legal landscape in Mexico. Attentive to detail and passionate about learning, he has never shied away from a challenge for his clients, whether large conglomerates or start-ups.

Before joining Hogan Lovells, Luis Giovanni worked in several leading law firms in Mexico City. He often collaborates with the firm's pro bono lawyers to offer advice and representation.
