

Danielle Wu

Counsel
Singapore

Biography

Danielle Wu is a dynamic lawyer with a reputation among clients as a trusted adviser who delivers commercial and pragmatic solutions.

With significant experience in executing complex corporate and private equity transactions across the Asia-Pacific region, Danielle combines her regional knowledge with technical proficiency to deliver results for clients.

Danielle has a unique insight into business concerns, having served as an in-house legal counsel to a private equity fund in Singapore prior to joining the firm. She is able to anticipate the needs of her clients and provide creative solutions that not only meet their legal needs, but also take into account business considerations.

Danielle's key areas of practice include mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and private equity transactions across a range of industry sectors. Danielle also advises on employment law and other general corporate matters.
