

Securities and Public Company Advisory

You face increasing challenges to operate your business in a changing environment. Advances in technology that impact or threaten traditional revenue streams, new regulatory requirements, and increasing shareholder engagement are just some of the issues that you may be facing.

Lawyers in the Securities and Public Company Advisory Group at Hogan Lovells know what issues matter most to you and your company. Our team acts as outside counsel for more than 100 public companies — from newly public to Fortune 500 enterprises, both for U.S. reporting companies and foreign private issuers. We provide strategic guidance and pragmatic advice to general counsels, public company boards of directors, special committees, management, and significant shareholders. Business professionals appreciate our straight talk, sound advice, experience, relationships with regulators, industry knowledge, and creative approaches.

Our team guides yours on all aspects of securities compliance, corporate governance matters, stock exchange listing standards, executive compensation arrangements, and shareholder engagement issues. We provide you with advice on handling day-to-day business as well as planning long-term strategy. We help you keep management and your board of directors informed and prepared, we provide workable solutions to complex business issues, and we help you manage and assess risk to your company.

We are efficient. The practical knowledge you're looking for is
