

Olesya V. Barsukova-Bakar

Partner

Washington, D.C.

Biography

For 20 years, Olesya Barsukova-Bakar has advised and represented global emerging and mature private and public companies. Her skills span an array of corporate matters, no matter how complex, interdisciplinary, cross-border, highly regulated, or unique.

While Olesya has handled all aspects of mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, strategic alliances and partnership transactions, venture capital transactions, recapitalizations, and restructurings, her main focus is on representation of sponsors and investors within the fund formation and private equity universe. She provides the right-sized advice for her clients to succeed – be it in a high-profile multi-billion dollar transaction or to first-time fund managers. Her experience advising both fund sponsors and investors provides her with the acute perspective of the market and its latest trends, knowledge of the sensitivities of the parties, and the ability to find win-win solutions for the clients, no matter which side of the equation they are on.

A key part of Olesya's role as a co-lead of Real Estate Funds is working with sponsors and investors in the real estate sector. She understands nuances of real estate investment structuring and helps clients through the complexities.
