The A Perspective Podcast: Andrew Skipper talks to Ronak Gopaldas

29 May 2020

The A Perspective Podcast

Andrew Skipper is the Head of Hogan Lovells Africa Practice. Since taking on this role six years ago, he has met and formed close relationships with some of Africa's most influential leaders, both on and off the continent.

In the final episode of series one, Andrew Skipper is joined by political economist and Director at Signal Risk, Ronak Gopaldas. Listen as they discuss what Ronak has termed the “Olympics of crisis management” and which African countries are heading for gold. He also discusses the contingencies that are necessary to maximize the opportunities to reimagine and reset African systems, as well as the prospects of greater regional cohesion afforded by the AfCFTA.
