Biography

Kerstin Neighbour is the global head of the highly-ranked Hogan Lovells Employment Practice, which has more than 130 dedicated employment lawyers across Europe, the United States, Latin America, the Middle East, Asia, and Africa.

Based in Frankfurt, Kerstin is a highly respected senior employment lawyer with extensive experience in transactional employment law advice and restructuring projects. As German employment law is rarely black or white, and is typically nuanced and open to interpretation, you need practitioners like Kerstin in your corner that will provide you with sound advice and offer workable solutions. No sitting on the fence, but clear answers to your questions.

Kerstin is known for her solution-oriented advice and her instinct and tact when negotiating a balance of interests and social plans with works councils and their advisors. Among other things, this is why Kerstin's international and domestic clients have placed their appreciation of her work on record by praising her "pragmatic and sensible advice" (Legal 500 EMEA) as well as her "ability to get to the point quickly and balance risk and reward effectively" (Chambers Europe).

Kerstin is co-editor of and contributor to the German
