Biography

Will Yavinsky focuses his corporate practice on U.S. and international business transactions. He brings vast experience in mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, partnerships, and strategic alliances.

Will represents strategic companies, financial sponsors, and other investors on domestic and cross-border transactions involving industries as diverse as aerospace and defense; government; automotive; fashion; industrial manufacturing; life sciences and health care; and technology, media and telecoms. He has been a member of the core deal team in transactions recognized as "deals of the year."

Will is Co-Head of our global Automotive Industry Sector Group, which is consistently recognized for excellence including by Law360 as Transportation Practice Group of the Year (2019).

While a senior associate, Will was seconded to a U.S.-based industrial sector client. As an in-house lawyer, he worked as a member of the legal teams supporting M&A, commercial and intellectual property development, as well as licensing matters, to mitigate legal risk and provide practical solutions to protect the company's interests.
