

Nigel Sharman

Knowledge Lawyer

Hong Kong

Biography

Nigel Sharman's practice is focused in assisting clients in both fee-earning and professional support lawyer roles across litigation and arbitration.

Nigel has advised on a range of commercial matters including financial mis-selling claims, data privacy enquiries, and cross-border arbitrations.

Drawing on his previous experience as a television news producer and journalist, Nigel writes client publications in an engaging, jargon-free style and explains the impacts of complex developments in a digestible form for the reader.

Nigel joined the firm in March 2018 having practiced in magic and silver-circle law firms in England and Hong Kong for more than 10 years.

Nigel received the Kennedy Scholarship from Harvard University in 1981.
